

Internship offer: Communication

About the Ocean & Climate Platform (OCP):

The OCP is an multi-stakeholder NGO gathering more than 100 members. OCP's objective is to raise awareness among political decision-makers and general public of the importance of the interlinkages between ocean, climate and biodiversity, and to advocate for "a healthy ocean and a protected climate".

About the main intern's tasks:

- Participating in the design of OCP's communications strategy for COP28, and drafting a synthesis of the ocean's role at COP28
- Participating in the elaboration of scientific mediation content based on IPCC reports and follow-up of the "knowledge dissemination" working group
- Assisting with the organisation of national and international conferences, meetings, and webinars.
- Updating the OCP's social media accounts (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn) and the website (Wordpress)
- Drafting a wide range of communication materials (meeting reports, conference documents, newsletters, blog articles, press releases..)

Skills and qualifications:

- Excellent command of both English and French (oral and written)
- Excellent writing skills and attention to detail
- Strong organisational skills and ability to work with minimum supervision
- Knowledge of international environmental affairs and governance
- Good skills in social media management
- Good knowledge of WordPress would be an asset

Academic background: Be enrolled in a masters' degree in environmental science, communication, journalism, international relations or in political science.

Dates: 18 September 2023, for a period of 4-6 months.

Financial compensation: Legal internship allowance.

Location: Maison de l'Océan, 195 rue Saint-Jacques, 75005 Paris.

To apply: Please send your CV, cover letter and availability to the attention of Ms Anaïs Deprez (adeprez@ocean-climate.org) by 8 September 2023, with the subject line: 09_23_POCCOM. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Selected candidates will be invited for an interview.